The Ohio Suicide Prevention Foundation celebrated the one-year anniversary of its launch on September 7, 2006. The Foundation was the brainchild of Dr. Hogan, who wanted to develop a source for suicide prevention funding that was unaffected by political rule. The Suicide Prevention Team of Ohio under the leadership of Elnora Jenkins, Administrator for Prevention Initiatives hired Greg Woods of G F Woods Consulting to develop a business plan for the Ohio Suicide Prevention Foundation. The plan was completed in June of 2005 and the Foundation was launched in September.

An agreement was signed with The Ohio State University, to provide administrative oversight and technical assistance to the Foundation under the College of Education and Human Ecology in the fall of 2005. The CEO, Marilyn Goodman was hired and the offices opened on December 1, 2005
